► Minutes: Beth Perkins

► The Board met at 10:00 a.m. with Kris Komar for a report on the National Training for the Montana Cultural Trust Grant. Present were Dan Rothlesberger, Tamar Stanley, and several other Museum Members and Volunteers.

Kris and Tamar stated different training sessions were held and the information was brought back to others who were not able to attend. Audio tapes and power point presentations were also purchased so their group can share what they learned with other community groups as well.

► Commissioner Chilcott and Commissioner Burrows attended MACo training in Helena for the day.

National Trust for Historic Preservation
National Preservation Conference
Spokane, Washington
October 31- November 3, 2012

$2,500 of BRCHT's 2012/13 Montana Cultural Trust Grant was expended to pay tuition to the National Trust Conference for the following group of heritage professionals from ten organizations that serve the Bitterroot Valley.

During the conference, relationships were deepened or built, knowledge was gain and we were inspired. The BRCHT also purchased the entire set of audio tapes and PowerPoint presentations for the entire conference so that the group can share what they learned with others in their organization and attend the sessions that they were not able to at the conference.
